

Dyslexia at School Survey - OREGON

Saturday, March 25, 2017

Survey Results Compared to Texas

DyslexicAdvantage.org
A 501(c)3 non-profit

Q16: My student's dyslexia was identified by:

OREGON: 40 Respondents / Texas: 130 Respondents; Texas has had a Dyslexia law since 1986

OR

TX

Q19: After the school was first informed about your child's dyslexia, when did changes take place for your student in class?

Answered: 40 Skipped: 1

OR

TX

Q20: My student is on a:

Answered: 41 Skipped: 0

OR

TX

Q22: My student's teacher was prepared to teach dyslexic students.

Answered: 40 Skipped: 1

OR

TX

Q23: The teacher told me that he/she had not received adequate training or education about dyslexia.

Answered: 39 Skipped: 2

OR

TX

Q24: It is rare to find a teacher who has background knowledge in dyslexia.

Answered: 40 Skipped: 1

OR

TX

Q29: My student's teacher did not know what to do if a program did not work for my student.

Answered: 40 Skipped: 1

OR

TX

Q30: My student was denied appropriate accommodations.

Answered: 38 Skipped: 3

OR

TX

Q32: My student was given failing grades.

Answered: 41 Skipped: 0

OR

TX

Q33: My student suffered from emotional and psychological difficulties due to challenges in school.

Answered: 41 Skipped: 0

OR

TX

Q37: My student was given books that he/she could not read.

Answered: 39 Skipped: 2

Q38: My student was given tests that he/she could not read.

Answered: 39 Skipped: 2

OR

TX

Q39: My student was given assignments that she / he couldn't possibly complete.

Answered: 38 Skipped: 3

OR

TX

Q40: My student was not taught at his/her appropriate intellectual level.

Answered: 39 Skipped: 2

OR

TX

Q41: My student was offered accessible texts or technology support for reading.

Answered: 39 Skipped: 2

Q43: A principal, teacher, or other professional at my student's school told me that they do not use the term 'dyslexia.'

Answered: 35 Skipped: 6

