

Landlord excuse bingo

Never used no-cause for a good tenant	Victim of our own success	This is MY home	I'm losing money	For-cause is too expensive
Problem is big corporations	Landlords will sell rentals	Violent problem tenant	Creepy problem tenant	My tenants love me
We need to build more housing	I'm one of the good landlords	FREE $ MARKET	For-cause takes too much time	Tenants scared to testify against neighbors
All economists agree	Don't want to be like SF / NYC	Destructive problem tenant	For-cause puts neighbors in danger	Problem is supply
A no-cause always has a cause	Barely make any profit	I'll be forced to be a slumlord	Econ 101	I'm a classic mom & pop landlord
