

We do not feel that more paperwork needs to be done to get a forest harvest. When more technical-legal wording is used to say something that could be more simple and easier and less paperwork why would you want to make it more difficult for those who have forest Trees.