Posting anonymously for another mama:

My kids' dad was watching my children. I felt something was wrong and sure enough... Found meth in his backpack this morning. Obviously he had been kicked out and won't be allowed around the kids. I have two kids and one on the way due shortly. I desperately need some sort of income. Dhs' erdc has a long waiting list and I have no friends or family in the area that can help out. I don't drive and only make 9.75 an hour. Childcare wants more than that. Plus there's travel time. Does anyone have suggestions for a stay at home mom to make some money? I'm beyond desperate!!! This has really turned my whole life upside down and I'm freaking it!

Amandalynn Mathews DHS erdc does have a wait list if you don't go through the jobs program. If you are receiving assistance then talk to them about getting into the jobs program to search for work and you will receive erdc
