BACKGROUND:

In 2015, the Task Force on Reentry, Employment and Housing (task force) was established. The task force sunset on December 31, 2016. On January 19, 2016, the task force issued an executive summary and report. That report noted that the task force should continue to work on several things, including supervision issues and reentry needs unique to women. Senate Bill 689 reestablishes this task force and charges it with studying and recommending actions related to reentry into the community for persons leaving incarceration, expanding employment opportunities for persons with criminal convictions, identifying housing opportunities for persons with criminal convictions and creating certifications for persons with criminal convictions. SB 689 requires the task force to submit a report to the Legislative Assembly by September 15, 2018. The task force would sunset on December 31, 2018.
