Subject: New Bill for Landlord/Tenant

I created a business 22 years ago in Oregon. I have been renting to all ranges of economic people. I have the right to set my rents and decide who stays in my Apartments.

My husband and I keep our places up more than most. We spend money on the properties and they also have helped us to retire in a comfortable manner. If we have someone causing trouble in an apartment we should be able to ask them to move. Other tenants don't want to testify, most of the time they just move out if there is too much trouble caused by another tenant. That makes it hard on us!

I should not have to pay for people to move. Not for any reason. I have worked for many years and given up a lot to create this business. I am not responsible for other people.
