

I own one rental property and have had to ask 2 renters to move in the 7 years I've had the house. I am very respectful of my tenants but that has not always been returned. RENTAL OWNERS WILL SELL AND REAP A HEFTY PROFIT rather than face possible punishment for a NO CAUSE eviction. That would result in even few rentals available and stricter criteria for renters.

There are better ways to reduce problems.
VOTE NO ON 2004!!

Respectfully,
