Subject: Family owned rentals

We have owned a rental property or two at a time in Oregon for over twenty five years, and have always been conscientious landlords. It seems that the new proposed laws will make it too much of a hassle to do so, resulting in an opposite effect than I believe you had in mind. 'No cause evictions' allow us to ask a borderline tenant to move on without the "evicted" stigma--so they can try harder elsewhere.

Thank you for your consideration.
