

Wrong for Oregon....Will discourage investment in any housing. Reasonable rent containment is ok but the other things in the bill confiscate owners rights to any say in their property. In addition it is not clear and gives unfair advantage to new construction. If this bill is passed in its present form it would not be prudent to invest in Oregon real estate.

Joan L. Drewes <jdrewes@bendbroadband.com>