Dear Oregon Senate:

This is a difficult financial year for you. Imagine if you having a difficult financial year as a citizen of this state and, despite just keeping afloat with your rent, you received a no-cause eviction from your apartment. The cost to those individuals is enormous : they cannot afford the cost of relocation, leaving many people with transitional housing and fewer and fewer resources to maintain their lives. In addition, we've seen massive increases in rent.

I urge you to pass this bill to show hurting Oregonians you stand with them.

Dave
