

Make individual corporate landlords responsible for their treatment of tenants. Don't make landlords reluctant to rent due to questionable past incidents. We are currently renting to a couple who had a question about past late fees. We will not take a chance on any renters who have a blot and will charge much higher rent and security deposits to protect ourselves.