

I am a landlord in Josephine County. I am asking you to oppose HB 2004-A. My husband worked hard all his life to provide for his family. Now I am a widow and live on the rentals that we had. You are taking away my rights, however I still have all the financial responsibility. In areas where rent control is in effect, property values has gone down. Some of the housing shortage is due to your restriction on building.

Dema Thieme