

I know that because I am a poor person I do not matter much to you. If you have any concern for people with limited incomes and few resources, please end the no cause evictions and allow rent controls. I do not understand the intricacies of everything, but I certainly do not want to end up under a bridge so that ODOT can push me around for "my own safety." Thanks. Mark