Good afternoon,

I am an Oregonian renter and student writing on behalf of this critical bill. Housing is a human right and I have firsthand seen the destruction that has befallen my fellow students who were not as fortunate as I was to secure some form of lodging. It is imperative that student constituents who are trying to gain an education and become part of this city's future success not fall prey to landlord greed. I urge you to wholeheartedly support this bill. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Akash Singh
