The Department also provides information to the public through presentations, publications and reports, its website, and responses to individual requests.

Senate Bill 41-A updates the statutes governing the Department's workforce and labor data analysis responsibilities. It clarifies that the Department may share certain confidential information with government entities, including Oregon public universities and the Oregon Health and Science University. It also clarifies that home care workers are not state employees for purposes of workforce and labor market information, and that the current data-sharing partnership between the Employment Department and the Public Employees Retirement System remains in place. Senate Bill 41-A also repeals the Occupational Program Planning System.
