

Rent control?

Mobile home park owners are not profiteers.

Try this: Get the garbage company and the water and sewer department and the assessors office and the power company and the insurance companies and the contractors that do repairs on our parks to all freeze their prices.

After you get that accomplished, you'll find that rents don't need to be raised as much or as often.

Problem solved !!!