

As a landlord I feel like I like I have no right. If the future is going in the way if this bill. I don't want to be, a landlord and I don't know what is going to happen to all the decent people, who are great renter. There need to be a move even playing field for both sides