

I am Patricia Clemens from Portland, Oregon and I support Oregon's joining the UPVIC. It can only make sense to have the true votes of all people decide who wins a national election. Once states have been gerrymandered and redistricted, the value of individual votes loses meaning. Please consider this bill and bring back democracy for all the people.