

This bill is not a good thing for the state of Oregon. In fact this bill is a good thing only for the states of New York and California.

This bill would remove the ability of less populated states to have any real voice in the election of our president.

Please vote no on this bill and kill it before it even gets out of committee.

John Kirk
97434