

Please note that we are opposed to any changes to the Electoral College Voting System! There was no mistake in the constitution when they provided this system to balance out the voting. We do not want the west and east coast states determining any future elections! America is no longer asleep...we are paying attention to how our representatives vote.

The Johnsons