

I am asking for a no vote on HB 2739. This will be, in my opinion very damaging to the Oregon Wheat industry, by hampering the Oregon State University wheat breeding program.

I very much support Biotechnology in it's potential to improve quality of cereal grain crops grown here in Oregon. It is my feeling that the door should be left open for Biotechnology as world demand for quality food increases.

Thank you for your consideration.

Brent A. Cheyne
Vice President
Oregon Wheat Growers League
541 891-2916