

There are always circumstances in life that cause anyone to not be able to continue in the path they were on, including landlords who no longer want to have a rental property for the sheer reason to have less stress in their life, the loss of a spouse , the unfortunate circumstances of cancer that sucks life and resources out of the landlords. No cause evictions can be so personal on a level that should not have to be explained to anyone... simply the right to do with your own property as you choose. We pay the taxes, we take the risk of a tenant destroying our property that we have worked so hard to maintain. Passing this bill is saying WE

THE GOVERNMENT OWN YOU AND YOUR HOME THAT IS YOURS.... this is truly unconstitutional and wrong
