

Rules Committee,

It is beyond time to stop the artificial process of electing our president via a few key states and the few people in certain counties or cities. We have two recent examples of presidents being elected with less than a national consensus. He/she who gets the most votes, should win the election....

Also, our present system marginalizes many states and districts. Open up the system. Votes should count!

Doug Sweet

douglas.sweet@gmail.com

2026 SE 28th Place

Portland, Oregon 97214