

Rules Committee,

It is time to reform the use of the Electoral College, and move to election by popular vote. Something that originated as a way to suppress votes earlier in our history should have no place in our electoral process today. The result has been to reduce the weight given to many individual votes - unfair and unjust on its face. Let's join those states that have rejected this method going forward!

Barbara Moshofsky
barbaram@norris-stevens.com
3635 SE Alder St
Portland, Oregon 97214