

Rules Committee,

I support changing the U.S. constitution to base the election of the U.S. presidency to a National Popular Vote.

I understand the original intent behind the Electoral College, and even agree that it was a smart decision for the time it was written, but as times change, laws change, and the people evolve, I do not think that we need such a "safety net" anymore and should only go by the National Popular Vote.

Mathew Wire
mattwire@kidstark.com
1617 NE Alberta #12
PORTLAND, Oregon 97211