

Alliances of states are not allowed to ignore the United States constitution. There is a good reason why the constitution specifies the Electoral College and states don't have the option to opt out.

.

I am a disabled veteran and I already feel that I am disenfranchised living in Oregon. Please don't make it worse.

Robert A. Graves