Rules Committee,

I am SO tired of winning the popular vote and ending up with the other candidate in charge because of the electoral college. It isn't right. Why should each person in Wyoming's voice count more than each person in California? Not ONE of us is better or more important than another, and nothing in this country that is wrong will EVER be fixed until that point is agreed on. There will never be voter equality until ALL VOICES ARE HEARD AND HEEDDED! Please pass this bill this year, without sneaking in amendments, without ballot referral, just a plain and simple "we want a popular vote." I'm originally from Montana, so I am FROM one of those states where each person's vote counts MORE than the populous states, and I still think the electoral college is LONG overdue being discarded, no matter what our forefathers' reasons for coming up with it in the first place.

Thank you for your time.
