

Rules Committee,

The old process of electing Presidents that was created for a population over 200 years ago through the electoral college is ridiculously ineffectual! It's time to use our current abilities with current technology to count national popular votes and bypass the middleman, the electoral college. Using anything but the National Popular Vote is unconstitutional; I deserve to be authentically represented in electing our President.

Sincerely,
Carol Klemz

Carol Klemz
cklemzart@centurylink.net
1250 NE Glacier Ridge Rd.
Bend, Oregon 97701