

Rules Committee,

Twice in my lifetime the person with the highest popular vote did not become president of the United States.

Both occasions caused individual voters to question whether their votes were meaningful, at least at the national level.

We also know that the way electors are selected vary from state to state. Most states do not appoint electors in proportion to their popular vote totals.

Therefore, please pass HB2927 with no amendments and no ballot referral.

Beth Bown
bethbown@centurylink.net
2543 SE 35th Ave
Portland, Oregon 97202