

Rules Committee,

The electoral college was instituted in 1789 to counter the perceived threats of the day both political and practical. Those threats are no longer present. One man one vote is now the law of the land and should be extended to include Presidential elections.

Harvey Black
hblack@easystreet.net
2715 NW Thurman St
Portland, Oregon 97210