Please protect our public lands. This is so very important, especially as we reach record temperatures across the planet - we need to protect our planet, not allow more mining and stripping. Please care about our home the way we do.

Suzana Marjanovic Portland, 97217