

Oregon Legislative Fiscal Office and State of Oregon Budget

February 2017

Constitutional Responsibility of Legislature: To balance the budget

Article IX, Section 2 - Legislature to provide revenue to pay current state expenses and interest.

The Legislative Assembly shall provide for raising revenue sufficiently to defray the expenses of the State for each fiscal year, and also a sufficient sum to pay the interest on the State debt, if there be any.

Article IX, Section 4 - Appropriation necessary for withdrawal from treasury.

No money shall be drawn from the treasury, but in pursuance of appropriations made by law.

Article IX, Section 6 - Deficiency of funds; tax levy to pay.

Whenever the expenses, of any fiscal year, shall exceed the income, the Legislative Assembly shall provide for levying a tax, for the ensuing fiscal year, sufficient, with other sources of income, to pay the deficiency, as well as the estimated expense of the ensuing fiscal year.

Oregon's Budget Policy

Based on principles of:

- Balancing estimated revenues and proposed expenditures
- Allocating resources to achieve desired outcomes
- Measuring program outcomes and progress toward desired outcomes
- Encouraging savings and investments that reduce or avoid future costs
- Planning for the short term and the long term, using consistent assumptions on demographics and trends
- Providing accountability at all levels for meeting program outcomes

Mission

The Legislative Fiscal Office's mission is to promote state fiscal accountability.

The Legislative Fiscal Office (LFO) provides objective research, analysis, and evaluation of state expenditures, financial affairs, program administration, and agency operations. LFO also provides staffing to several legislative committees.

LFO was created in 1959 as a non-partisan, independent, permanent professional support staff office to the Legislature.

LFO Organization Chart
