

HB 2360 STAFF MEASURE SUMMARY

House Committee On Judiciary

---

Prepared By: Josh Nasbe, Counsel

Meeting Dates: 2/16

WHAT THE MEASURE DOES:

Modifies crime of failure to report as sex offender. When sex offender fails to report after change of residence, eliminates obligation of state to prove that sex offender has acquired a new residence.

REVENUE: May have revenue impact, but no statement yet issued

FISCAL: May have fiscal impact, but no statement yet issued

ISSUES DISCUSSED:

EFFECT OF AMENDMENT:

BACKGROUND:

House Bill 2360 returns the law to its pre-2009 status, by requiring a person who must report as a sex offender to do so within 10 days "following a change of residence." The current statutory obligation was adopted in response to a 2008 case decided by the Oregon Court of Appeals. See State v. Hiner, 269 Or. App. 447 (2015). The purpose of the 2009 amendment was to "ensure that the state would be able to establish venue for the crime in at least one county." Id. at 451. That is, in situations where a defendant moves from one county to another county, venue is appropriate in either county. One consequence of current law, however, is that the State must prove that "the defendant has both left his former residence and acquired a new residence." Id. at 452. House Bill 2360 removes the obligation of the State to prove that the defendant has acquired a new residence.
