Re: HCR 2

Representative Williamson,

On May 20, 2010, Chief Daniel K. Duncan's 34-year watch came to an end.

Chief Duncan's expansive career took him from the Tillamook County Sheriff's Office to the Lake Oswego Police Department. In each of his positions, Chief Duncan was an exemplary officer. He was well regarded among his colleagues and received many honors, including Tillamook County Sheriff's first Officer of the Year award and the Oregon Association Chiefs of Police's President's Award.

Thank you for your efforts to honor Chief Duncan and to keep his memory alive as it honors others who have given all they have while working for the communities they've served.

Chief Duncan was a dedicated, professional and compassionate police officer who loved his family, his job, and his community.

The Oregon Coalition of Police and Sheriffs offers its thanks to Chief Duncan and condolences to his family.

Respectfully,

Daryl Turner
President, Oregon Coalition of Police and Sheriffs
