

Metro

Metro's Role in the Oregon PaintCare Program

Jim Quinn

Metro, Portland, OR

February 16, 2017

PaintCare launch: July 1, 2010

- Oregon was the first state in the US to require producer responsibility for paint
- Resulted from a multi-year dialogue with the paint industry

Metro's role in the Oregon PaintCare program

Paint collector
... and transporter
... and recycler
... and retailer

PaintCare Benefits to Metro

- $1 million reduction in the annual cost of our HHW program to our ratepayers
- > 50 new collection points for paint in our region
- More paint feedstock available for recycling
 - Good for MetroPaint customers
 - Good for the environment

MetroPaint

- More than 4 million gallons of leftover latex paint processed to date
- Available in 85 retail locations across the Pacific Northwest
- Ongoing partnership with Miller paint

