

--I support fair pay for working women. Now women are heads of households and they support their households. Other women help their husband or mothers pay for care and the household. Fair pay is the only fair way for workers to be treated.

Mitsy