WHAT THE MEASURE DOES:

Expands authority of Department of Administrative Services (DAS) to require fingerprints of its employees and applicants, to include applicants and employees of executive branch entities receiving human resource services from DAS.

ISSUES DISCUSSED:

- Provisions of measure
- Smaller entities that typically obtain human resource services from DAS

EFFECT OF AMENDMENT:

No amendment.

BACKGROUND:

The Department of Administrative Services (DAS) currently has the authority to require fingerprints from its applicants and employees for the purpose of running nationwide criminal records checks. Senate Bill 86 extends that authority to include applicants or employees of the executive branch that have contracts or interagency agreements with DAS for human resource services.
