He reenlisted in the Navy again in June 1967, and was sent to Vietnam. He was a United States Navy Hospital Corpsman (HN Hospitalman - E3) assigned to Headquarters and Service Company, 2nd Battalion, 7th Marine Regiment, 1st Marine Division, III Marine Amphibious Force. He succumbed to hostile enemy fire in Quang Nam Province, South Vietnam, on February 8, 1968, at the age of 23. His younger brother, Staff Sergeant Clifford Johnson began his tour in Vietnam two years later, on July 31, 1970. Both brothers were awarded the National Defense Service Medal, the Republic of Vietnam Campaign Medal, the Vietnam Service Medal and the Purple Heart.
