Removes references to the Oregon Talent Council from state law relating to the Oregon Innovation Council. Removes provisions allowing the Board to receive or spend money. Takes effect 91 days after adjournment sine die.

ISSUES DISCUSSED:

- Need for statewide approach to long-term, strategic talent development planning in Oregon
- Employers struggling to find skilled workers, creating tens of thousands of job vacancies in Oregon
- Benefits of convening business executives and businesses, workforce and education agencies
- Improvements of integrating current Oregon Workforce Investment Board and Oregon Talent Council strategic plans

EFFECT OF AMENDMENT:

Resolves conflicts. Removes references to the Oregon Talent Council from state law relating to the Oregon Innovation Council. Removes provisions allowing the Workforce and Talent Development Board to receive or spend money.

BACKGROUND:

The State Workforce Investment Board, currently known as the Oregon Workforce Investment Board (OWIB), is an advisory board to the Governor on workforce matters. OWIB is responsible for the implementation of the federal Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA), including development of a statewide strategic plan for WIOA programs, guidance for local workforce investment boards in the development of local workforce plans, and management of a coordinated statewide system that includes the one-stop delivery system.

HB 3437 B STAFF MEASURE SUMMARY

The Oregon Talent Council (OTC) was established in 2015 by House Bill 2728 to address the state's critical gap in skilled talent and promote economic growth in Oregon. The OTC is comprised of a diverse group of industry leaders from multiple sectors and is charged with making strategic investments and advocating for high wage jobs in key industries in Oregon. It is responsible for creating a Talent Development Plan that identifies talent issues and industry trends related to high-growth industries. For the 2015-2017 biennium, $6.1 million was appropriated to the OTC Fund for strategic investments.
