Requires provisions are reviewed to ensure rigor and satisfy requirements of high school diploma. Requires advisory group advise ODE on professional development opportunities related to ELL and cultural responsiveness and review resources available to districts. Requires advisory group to meet four times each year.

ISSUES DISCUSSED:

- Work of former Representative Joe Gallegos to improve English Language Learner (ELL) programs
- Former legislation to improve funding of ELL programs
- Work to reduce duplicative efforts at Oregon Department of Education

EFFECT OF AMENDMENT:

No amendment.

BACKGROUND:

In October 2013, the State Board of Education (SBE) approved the English Language Proficiency standards. The SBE approved a plan to use teams to deliver professional learning in 34 school districts with large populations of English language learners using district-level leaders.

House Bill 3358-A establishes an advisory group to advise the Oregon Department of Education on English Language Learner programs, which include program requirements and State School Fund allocation.
