5 “SECTION 1. ORS 652.210 is amended to read:

6 “652.210. As used in ORS 652.210 to 652.230, unless the context requires otherwise:

7 “(1) ‘Compensation’ includes wages, salary, bonuses, benefits, fringe benefits and equity-
8 based compensation.

9 “[1] (2) ‘Employee’ means any individual who, otherwise than as a copartner of the employer, 10 as an independent contractor or as a participant in a work training program administered under the 11 state or federal assistance laws, renders personal services wholly or partly in this state to an em-
12 ployer who pays or agrees to pay such individual at a fixed rate. However, when services are ren-
13 dered only partly in this state, an individual is not an employee unless the contract of employment
14 of the employee has been entered into, or payments thereunder are ordinarily made or to be made,
15 within this state.

16 “[2] (3)(a) ‘Employer’ means any person employing one or more employees, including the State
17 of Oregon or any political subdivision thereof or any county, city, district, authority, public corpo-
18 ration or entity and any of their instrumentalities organized and existing under law or charter.

19 “(b) ‘Employer’ does not include the federal government.

20 “(4) ‘Equal-pay analysis’ means an evaluation process to assess and correct wage dis-
21 parities among employees who perform work of comparable character.

22 “(5) ‘Protected class’ means a group of persons distinguished by race, color, religion, sex,
23 sexual orientation, national origin, marital status, veteran status, disability or age.

24 “[3] (6) ‘Rate’ with reference to wages means:

25 “(a) The basis of compensation for services by an employee for an employer; and 26 “(b) [includes] Compensation based on the time spent in the performance of the services, on the 27 number of operations accomplished or on the quantity produced or handled.

28 “(7) ‘Sexual orientation’ has the meaning given that term in ORS 174.100.

29 “[4] (8) ‘Unpaid wages’ means the difference between the wages actually paid to an employee
30 and the wages required under ORS 652.220 to be paid to the employee.

31 “(9) ‘Veteran status’ means an individual is a veteran as defined in ORS 408.225.

32 “[5] (10) ‘Wages’ means all compensation for performance of service by an employee for an 33 employer, whether paid by the employer or another person, [including] or paid in cash or any 34 medium other than cash [cash value of all compensation paid in any medium other than cash].

35 “(11) ‘Working conditions’ includes work environment, hours, time of day, physical sur-

1 roundings and potential hazards encountered by an employee.

2 “(12) ‘Work of comparable character’ means work that requires substantially similar
3 knowledge, skill, effort, responsibility and working conditions in the performance of work,
4 regardless of job description or job title.

5 “SECTION 2. ORS 652.220 is amended to read:

6 “652.220. (1) [No employer shall:] It is an unlawful employment practice under ORS chapter 7 659A for an employer to:

8 “(a) In any manner discriminate between [the sexes] employees on the basis of a protected 9 class in the payment of wages or other compensation for work of comparable character[, the per-
10 formance of which requires comparable skills].

11 “(b) Pay wages or other compensation to any employee at a rate [less] greater than that at 12 which the employer pays wages or other compensation to employees of [the opposite sex] a pro-
13 TECTED CLASS for work of comparable character[, the performance of which requires comparable 14 skills].

15 “(c) Screen job applicants based on current or past compensation.

16 “(d) Determine compensation for a position based on current or past compensation of a
17 prospective employee. This paragraph is not intended to prevent an employer from consid- 18 ering the compensation of a current employee of the employer during a transfer, move or 19 hire of the employee to a new position with the same employer.

20 “[(2) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply where:]

21 “[(a) Payment is made pursuant to a seniority or merit system which does not discriminate on the 22 basis of sex.]

23 “[(b) A differential in wages between employees is based in good faith on factors other than sex.]

24 “(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, an employer may pay employees for 25 work of comparable character at different compensation levels if all of the difference in 26 compensation levels is based on a bona fide factor that is related to the position in question 27 and is based on:

28 “(a) A seniority system;

29 “(b) A merit system;

30 “(c) A system that measures earnings by quantity or quality of production, including 31 piece-rate work;

32 “(d) Workplace locations;

33 “(e) Travel, if travel is necessary and regular for the employee;

34 “(f) Education;

35 “(g) Training;

36 “(h) Experience; or

37 “(i) Any combination of the factors described in this subsection, if the combination of 38 factors accounts for the entire compensation differential.

39 “(3) [No employer shall] An employer may not in any manner discriminate in the payment of 40 wages or other compensation against any employee because the employee has filed a complaint
41 under ORS 659A.820 or in a proceeding under ORS 652.210 to 652.230[, or 659A.885 or has testi-
42 fied, or is about to testify, or because the employer believes that the employee may testify, in any 43 investigation or proceedings pursuant to ORS 652.210 to 652.230, 659A.830 or 659A.885 or in a 44 criminal action pursuant to ORS 652.210 to 652.230.

45 “(4) An employer may not reduce the compensation level of an employee to comply with

1 the provisions of this section.

2 “(5) Amounts owed to an employee because of the failure of the employer to comply with 3 the requirements of this section are unpaid wages.

4 “(6) An employee who asserts a violation under this section may file a complaint with the 5 Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor and Industries under ORS 659A.820, a civil action un-
6 der ORS 652.230 or a civil action under 659A.885.

7 “(7) An employer shall post a notice of the requirements of this section in every estab-
8 lishment where employees work. The Bureau of Labor and Industries shall make available 9 to employers a template that meets the required notice provisions of this section.

10 “SECTION 3. ORS 652.230 is amended to read:

11 “652.230. (1) Any employee whose compensation is at a rate that is in violation of ORS 652.220 12 shall have a right of action against the employer for the recovery of:

13 “(a) The amount of the unpaid wages to which the employee is entitled for the one year period 14 preceding the commencement of the action; and 15 “(b) An additional amount as liquidated damages equal to the amount referred to in paragraph 16 (a) of this subsection.

17 “(2) The court shall award reasonable attorney fees to the prevailing plaintiff in an action under 18 this section. The court may award reasonable attorney fees and expert witness fees incurred by a 19 defendant who prevails in the action if the court determines that the plaintiff had no objectively 20 reasonable basis for asserting a claim or no objectively reasonable basis for appealing an adverse 21 decision of a trial court.

22 “(3) The action for the unpaid wages and liquidated damages may be maintained by one or more 23 employees on behalf of themselves or other employees similarly situated.

24 “(4) No agreement for compensation at a rate less than the rate to which such employee is en-
25 titled under ORS 652.210 to 652.230 is a defense to any action under ORS 652.210 to 652.230.

26 “(5) For the purpose of time limitations, a compensation practice that is unlawful under 27 ORS 652.220 occurs each time compensation is paid pursuant to a discriminatory compen-
28 sation decision or other practice.

29 “(6) An action under this section alleging a violation of ORS 652.220 must be commenced
30 within one year after the occurrence of the unlawful practice.

31 “(7) Notwithstanding ORS 30.275 (2)(b), notice of claim against a public body under ORS
32 652.220 must be given within 300 days of discovery of the alleged loss or injury.

33 “SECTION 4. It is an unlawful practice under ORS chapter 659A for an employer or 34 prospective employer to seek the salary history of an applicant or employee from the appli-
35 cant or employee or a current or former employer of the applicant or employee. This section 36 is not intended to prevent an employer from requesting from a prospective employee written 37 authorization to confirm prior compensation after the employer makes an offer of employ-38 ment to the prospective employee that includes an amount of compensation.

39 “SECTION 5. ORS 659A.820 is amended to read:

40 “659A.820. (1) As used in this section, for purposes of a complaint alleging an unlawful practice
41 under ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421 or discrimination under federal housing law, [aggrieved person’]
42 ‘person claiming to be aggrieved by an unlawful practice’ includes, but is not limited to, a 43 person who believes that the person:

44 “(a) Has been injured by an unlawful practice under ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421 or a 45 discriminatory housing practice; or

1 “(b) Will be injured by an unlawful practice under ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421 or a
2 discriminatory housing practice that is about to occur.

3 “(2) Any person claiming to be aggrieved by an [alleged] unlawful practice may file with the 4 Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor and Industries a verified written complaint that states the 5 name and address of the person alleged to have committed the unlawful practice. The complaint
6 must be signed by the complainant. The complaint must set forth the acts or omissions alleged to 7 be an unlawful practice. The complainant may be required to set forth in the complaint such other
8 information as the commissioner may require. Except as provided in ORS 654.062, a complaint under 9 this section must be filed no later than one year after the alleged unlawful practice.

10 “(3)(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, a complaint may not be filed under 11 this section if a civil action has been commenced in state or federal court alleging the same matters.

12 “(b) The prohibition described in paragraph (a) of this subsection does not apply to a complaint
13 alleging an unlawful practice under ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421 or alleging discrimination under 14 federal housing law.

15 “(4) If an employer has one or more employees who refuse or threaten to refuse to abide by the 16 provisions of this chapter or to cooperate in carrying out the purposes of this chapter, the employer
17 may file with the commissioner a verified complaint requesting assistance by conciliation or other 18 remedial action.

19 “(5) Except as provided in subsection (6) of this section, the commissioner shall notify the person
20 against whom a complaint is made within 30 days of the filing of the complaint. The commissioner 21 shall include in the notice the date, place and circumstances of the alleged unlawful practice.

22 “(6) The commissioner shall notify the person against whom a complaint alleging an unlawful 23 practice under ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421 or discrimination under federal housing law is made
24 within 10 days of the filing of the complaint. The commissioner shall include in the notice:

25 “(a) The date, place and circumstances of the alleged unlawful practice; and 26 “(b) A statement that the person against whom the complaint is made may file an answer to the 27 complaint.

28 “SECTION 6. ORS 659A.870 is amended to read:

29 “659A.870. (1) Except as provided in this section, the filing of a civil action by a person in cir-
30 cuit court pursuant to ORS 659A.885, or in federal district court under applicable federal law,
31 waives the right of the person to file a complaint with the Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor and 32 Industries under ORS 659A.820 with respect to the matters alleged in the civil action.

33 “(2) The filing of a complaint under ORS 659A.820 is not a condition precedent to the filing of 34 any civil action.

35 “(3) If a person files a civil action alleging an unlawful practice under ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421
36 or discrimination under federal housing law, the filing does not constitute an election of remedies
37 or a waiver of the right of the person to file a complaint with the commissioner under ORS 659A.820,
38 but the commissioner shall dismiss the complaint upon the commencement of a trial in the civil 39 action.

40 “(4) If a person files a complaint under ORS 659A.820 alleging a violation of ORS 652.220
41 and the commissioner issues a final order in favor of the complainant, the commissioner
42 shall require the employer to pay an award of back pay for the lesser of:

43 “(a) The two-year period immediately preceding the filing of the complaint plus the period
44 of time commencing with the date on which the complaint is filed and ending on the date on
45 which the commissioner issued the order; or

1 “(b) The period of time the complainant was subject to an unlawful wage differential by
2 the employer plus the period of time commencing with the date on which the complaint is
3 filed and ending on the date on which the commissioner issued the order.

4 “[(4)(a)] (5)(a) The filing of a complaint under ORS 659A.820 by a person alleging an unlawful
5 practice under ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421 or discrimination under federal housing law does not
6 constitute an election of remedies or a waiver of the right of the person to file a civil action with
7 respect to the same matters, but a civil action may not be filed after a hearing officer has com-
8 menced a hearing on the record under this chapter with respect to the allegations of the complaint.

9 “(b) A respondent or complainant named in a complaint filed under ORS 659A.820 or 659A.825
10 alleging an unlawful practice under ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421 or discrimination under federal
11 housing law may elect to have the matter heard in circuit court under ORS 659A.885. The election
12 must be made in writing and received by the commissioner within 20 days after service of formal
13 charges under ORS 659A.845. If the respondent or the complainant makes the election, the commis-
14 sioner may pursue the matter in court on behalf of the complainant at no cost to the complainant.

15 “(c) If the Attorney General or the commissioner files a complaint under ORS 659A.825, the 16 Attorney General or the commissioner may elect to have the matter heard in circuit court under 17 ORS 659A.885.

18 “(d) If the respondent, the complainant, the Attorney General or the commissioner do not elect
19 to have the matter heard in circuit court, the commissioner may conduct a hearing on the formal
20 charges under ORS 659A.850.

21 “[(5)] (6) A person who has filed a complaint under ORS 659A.820 need not receive a 90-day
22 notice under ORS 659A.880 before commencing a civil action that is based on the same matters al-
23 leged in the complaint filed with the commissioner.

24 “[(6)] (7) Except as provided in subsections (3) and [(4)] (5) of this section, this section does not
25 limit or alter in any way the authority or power of the commissioner, or limit or alter in any way
26 any of the rights of an individual complainant, until and unless the complainant commences a civil 27 action.

28 “SECTION 7. ORS 659A.870, as amended by section 5, chapter 609, Oregon Laws 2015, is 29 amended to read:

30 “659A.870. (1) Except as provided in this section, the filing of a civil action by a person in cir-
31 cuit court pursuant to ORS 659A.885, or in federal district court under applicable federal law,
32 waives the right of the person to file a complaint with the Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor and
33 Industries under ORS 659A.820 with respect to the matters alleged in the civil action.

34 “(2) The filing of a complaint under ORS 659A.820 is not a condition precedent to the filing of 35 any civil action.

36 “(3) If a person files a civil action alleging an unlawful practice under ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421
37 or discrimination under federal housing law, the filing does not constitute an election of remedies
38 or a waiver of the right of the person to file a complaint with the commissioner under ORS 659A.820,
39 but the commissioner shall dismiss the complaint upon the commencement of a trial in the civil 40 action.

41 “(4) If a person files a complaint under ORS 659A.820 alleging a violation of ORS 652.220
42 and the commissioner issues a final order in favor of the complainant, the commissioner
43 shall require the employer to pay an award of back pay for the lesser of:

44 “(a) The two-year period immediately preceding the filing of the complaint plus the period
45 of time commencing with the date on which the complaint is filed and ending on the date on

1 which the commissioner issued the order; or

2 “(b) The period of time the complainant was subject to an unlawful wage differential by
3 the employer plus the period of time commencing with the date on which the complaint is
4 filed and ending on the date on which the commissioner issued the order.

5 “[4)(a)] (5)(a) The filing of a complaint under ORS 659A.820 by a person alleging an unlawful
6 practice under ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421 or discrimination under federal housing law does not
7 constitute an election of remedies or a waiver of the right of the person to file a civil action with
8 respect to the same matters, but a civil action may not be filed after a hearing officer has com-
9 menced a hearing on the record under this chapter with respect to the allegations of the complaint.

10 “(b) A respondent or complainant named in a complaint filed under ORS 659A.820 or 659A.825
11 alleging an unlawful practice under ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421 or discrimination under federal
12 housing law may elect to have the matter heard in circuit court under ORS 659A.885. The election
13 must be made in writing and received by the commissioner within 20 days after service of formal
14 charges under ORS 659A.845. If the respondent or the complainant makes the election, the commis-
15 sioner shall pursue the matter in court on behalf of the complainant at no cost to the complainant.

16 “(c) If the Attorney General or the commissioner files a complaint under ORS 659A.825, the 17 Attorney General or the commissioner may elect to have the matter heard in circuit court under 18 ORS 659A.885.

19 “(d) If the respondent, the complainant, the Attorney General or the commissioner do not elect
20 to have the matter heard in circuit court, the commissioner may conduct a hearing on the formal
21 charges under ORS 659A.850.

22 “[5)] (6) A person who has filed a complaint under ORS 659A.820 need not receive a 90-day
23 notice under ORS 659A.880 before commencing a civil action that is based on the same matters al-
24 leged in the complaint filed with the commissioner.

25 “[6)] (7) Except as provided in subsections (3) and [4)] (5) of this section, this section does not
26 limit or alter in any way the authority or power of the commissioner, or limit or alter in any way
27 any of the rights of an individual complainant, until and unless the complainant commences a civil 28 action.

29 “SECTION 8. ORS 659A.875 is amended to read:

30 “659A.875. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a civil action under ORS
31 659A.885 alleging an unlawful employment practice must be commenced within one year after the
32 occurrence of the unlawful employment practice unless a complaint has been timely filed under ORS
33 659A.820.

34 “(2) A person who has filed a complaint under ORS 659A.820 must commence a civil action un-
35 der ORS 659A.885 within 90 days after a 90-day notice is mailed to the complainant under ORS
36 659A.880. This subsection does not apply to a complainant alleging an unlawful practice under ORS
37 659A.145 or 659A.421 or discrimination under federal housing law.

38 “(3) A civil action alleging a violation of ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421 must be commenced not 39 later than two years after the occurrence or the termination of the unlawful practice, or within two 40 years after the breach of any settlement agreement entered into under ORS 659A.840, whichever
41 occurs last. The two-year period shall not include any time during which an administrative pro-
42 ceeding was pending with respect to the unlawful practice.

43 “(4) A civil action under ORS 659A.885 alleging an unlawful practice in violation of ORS
44 659A.403 or 659A.406 must be commenced within one year of the occurrence of the unlawful prac-
45 tice.

1 “(5) The notice of claim required under ORS 30.275 must be given in any civil action under ORS
2 659A.885 against a public body, as defined in ORS 30.260, or any officer, employee or agent of a
3 public body as defined in ORS 30.260.

4 “(6) Notwithstanding ORS 30.275 (9), a civil action under ORS 659A.885 against a public body,
5 as defined in ORS 30.260, or any officer, employee or agent of a public body as defined in ORS
6 30.260, based on an unlawful employment practice must be commenced within one year after the
7 occurrence of the unlawful employment practice unless a complaint has been timely filed under ORS
8 659A.820.

9 “(7) For the purpose of time limitations, a compensation practice that is unlawful under
10 ORS 652.220 occurs each time compensation is paid under a discriminatory compensation
11 decision or other practice.

12 “(8) Notwithstanding ORS 30.275 (2)(b), notice of claim against a public body under ORS
13 652.220 or 659A.355 must be given within 300 days of discovery of the alleged loss or injury.

14 “SECTION 9. ORS 659A.885, as amended by section 5, chapter 73, Oregon Laws 2016, is 15 amended to read:

16 “659A.885. (1) Any person claiming to be aggrieved by an unlawful practice specified in sub-
17 section (2) of this section may file a civil action in circuit court. In any action under this subsection,
18 the court may order injunctive relief and any other equitable relief that may be appropriate, in-
19 cluding but not limited to reinstatement or the hiring of employees with or without back pay. A
20 court may order back pay in an action under this subsection only for the two-year period imme-
21 diately preceding the filing of a complaint under ORS 659A.820 with the Commissioner of the Bureau
22 of Labor and Industries, or if a complaint was not filed before the action was commenced, the two-
23 year period immediately preceding the filing of the action. In any action under this subsection, the 24 court may allow the prevailing party costs and reasonable attorney fees at trial and on appeal. Ex-
25 cept as provided in subsection (3) of this section:

26 “(a) The judge shall determine the facts in an action under this subsection; and

27 “(b) Upon any appeal of a judgment in an action under this subsection, the appellate court shall 28 review the judgment pursuant to the standard established by ORS 19.415 (3).

29 “(2) An action may be brought under subsection (1) of this section alleging a violation of ORS
30 10.090, 10.092, 25.337, 25.424, 171.120, 408.230, 408.237 (2), 475B.233, 476.574, 652.220, 652.355, 653.060,
31 653.601 to 653.661, 659.852, 659A.030, 659A.040, 659A.043, 659A.046, 659A.063, 659A.069, 659A.082,
32 659A.088, 659A.103 to 659A.145, 659A.150 to 659A.186, 659A.194, 659A.199, 659A.203, 659A.218,
33 659A.228, 659A.230, 659A.233, 659A.236, 659A.250 to 659A.262, 659A.277, 659A.290, 659A.300,
34 659A.306, 659A.309, 659A.315, 659A.318, 659A.320, 659A.355, 659A.421, 653.547 or 653.549.

35 “(3) In any action under subsection (1) of this section alleging a violation of ORS 25.337, 25.424,
36 652.220, 652.355, 659.852, 659A.030, 659A.040, 659A.043, 659A.046, 659A.069, 659A.082, 659A.103 to
37 659A.145, 659A.199, 659A.203, 659A.228, 659A.230, 659A.250 to 659A.262, 659A.290, 659A.318,
38 659A.355, 659A.421, 653.547 or 653.549:

39 “(a) The court may award, in addition to the relief authorized under subsection (1) of this sec-
40 tion, compensatory damages or $200, whichever is greater, and punitive damages;

41 “(b) At the request of any party, the action shall be tried to a jury;

42 “(c) Upon appeal of any judgment finding a violation, the appellate court shall review the judg-
43 ment pursuant to the standard established by ORS 19.415 (1); and

44 “(d) Any attorney fee agreement shall be subject to approval by the court.

45 “(4) Notwithstanding ORS 31.730, in an action under subsection (1) of this section alleging

1 a violation of ORS 652.220, the court may award punitive damages if:

2 “(a) It is proved by clear and convincing evidence that an employer has engaged in fraud,
3 acted with malice or acted with willful and wanton misconduct; or

4 “(b) An employer was previously adjudicated in a proceeding under this section or under 5 ORS 659A.850 for a violation of ORS 652.220.

6 “[4] (5) In any action under subsection (1) of this section alleging a violation of ORS [652.355
7 or] 653.060, the court may award, in addition to the relief authorized under subsection (1) of this 8 section, compensatory damages or $200, whichever is greater.

9 “[5] (6) In any action under subsection (1) of this section alleging a violation of ORS 171.120,
10 476.574 or 659A.218, the court may award, in addition to the relief authorized under subsection (1)
11 of this section, compensatory damages or $250, whichever is greater.

12 “[6] (7) In any action under subsection (1) of this section alleging a violation of ORS 10.090
13 or 10.092, the court may award, in addition to the relief authorized under subsection (1) of this 14 section, a civil penalty in the amount of $720.

15 “[7] (8) Any individual against whom any distinction, discrimination or restriction on account
16 of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, marital status or age, if the individ-
17 ual is 18 years of age or older, has been made by any place of public accommodation, as defined in 18 ORS 659A.400, by any employee or person acting on behalf of the place or by any person aiding or
19 abetting the place or person in violation of ORS 659A.406 may bring an action against the operator
20 or manager of the place, the employee or person acting on behalf of the place or the aider or abettor
21 of the place or person. Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, in an action under this sub-
22 section:

23 “(a) The court may award, in addition to the relief authorized under subsection (1) of this sec-
24 tion, compensatory and punitive damages;

25 “(b) The operator or manager of the place of public accommodation, the employee or person
26 acting on behalf of the place, and any aider or abettor shall be jointly and severally liable for all
27 damages awarded in the action;

28 “(c) At the request of any party, the action shall be tried to a jury;

29 “(d) The court shall award reasonable attorney fees to a prevailing plaintiff;

30 “(e) The court may award reasonable attorney fees and expert witness fees incurred by a de-
31 fendant who prevails only if the court determines that the plaintiff had no objectively reasonable
32 basis for asserting a claim or no reasonable basis for appealing an adverse decision of a trial court;
33 and

34 “(f) Upon any appeal of a judgment under this subsection, the appellate court shall review the 35 judgment pursuant to the standard established by ORS 19.415 (1).

36 “[8] (9) When the commissioner or the Attorney General has reasonable cause to believe that 37 a person or group of persons is engaged in a pattern or practice of resistance to the rights protected
38 by ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421 or federal housing law, or that a group of persons has been denied
39 any of the rights protected by ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421 or federal housing law, the commissioner
40 or the Attorney General may file a civil action on behalf of the aggrieved persons in the same
41 manner as a person or group of persons may file a civil action under this section. In a civil action
42 filed under this subsection, the court may assess against the respondent, in addition to the relief
43 authorized under subsections (1) and (3) of this section, a civil penalty:

44 “(a) In an amount not exceeding $50,000 for a first violation; and

45 “(b) In an amount not exceeding $100,000 for any subsequent violation.

1 “[(9)] (10) In any action under subsection (1) of this section alleging a violation of ORS 659A.145
2 or 659A.421 or alleging discrimination under federal housing law, when the commissioner is pursuing
3 the action on behalf of an aggrieved complainant, the court shall award reasonable attorney fees to
4 the commissioner if the commissioner prevails in the action. The court may award reasonable at-
5 torney fees and expert witness fees incurred by a defendant that prevails in the action if the court
6 determines that the commissioner had no objectively reasonable basis for asserting the claim or for
7 appealing an adverse decision of the trial court.

8 “[10)] (11) In an action under subsection (1) or [(8)] (9) of this section alleging a violation of 9 ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421 or discrimination under federal housing law:

10 “(a) ‘Aggrieved person’ includes a person who believes that the person:

11 “(A) Has been injured by an unlawful practice or discriminatory housing practice; or 12 “(B) Will be injured by an unlawful practice or discriminatory housing practice that is about to 13 occur.

14 “(b) An aggrieved person in regard to issues to be determined in an action may intervene as of 15 right in the action. The Attorney General may intervene in the action if the Attorney General
16 certifies that the case is of general public importance. The court may allow an intervenor prevailing
17 party costs and reasonable attorney fees at trial and on appeal.

18 “SECTION 10. ORS 659A.885, as amended by section 5, chapter 73, Oregon Laws 2016, and 19 section 9 of this 2017 Act, is amended to read:

20 “659A.885. (1) Any person claiming to be aggrieved by an unlawful practice specified in sub-
21 section (2) of this section may file a civil action in circuit court. In any action under this subsection,
22 the court may order injunctive relief and any other equitable relief that may be appropriate, in-
23 cluding but not limited to reinstatement or the hiring of employees with or without back pay. A
24 court may order back pay in an action under this subsection only for the two-year period imme-
25 diately preceding the filing of a complaint under ORS 659A.820 with the Commissioner of the Bureau
26 of Labor and Industries, or if a complaint was not filed before the action was commenced, the two-
27 year period immediately preceding the filing of the action. In any action under this subsection, the 28 court may allow the prevailing party costs and reasonable attorney fees at trial and on appeal. Ex-
29 cept as provided in subsection (3) of this section:

30 “(a) The judge shall determine the facts in an action under this subsection; and

31 “(b) Upon any appeal of a judgment in an action under this subsection, the appellate court shall 32 review the judgment pursuant to the standard established by ORS 19.415 (3).

33 “(2) An action may be brought under subsection (1) of this section alleging a violation of ORS
34 10.090, 10.092, 25.337, 25.424, 171.120, 408.230, 408.237 (2), 475B.233, 476.574, 652.220, 652.355, 653.060,
35 653.601 to 653.661, 659.852, 659A.030, 659A.040, 659A.043, 659A.046, 659A.063, 659A.069, 659A.082,
36 659A.088, 659A.103 to 659A.145, 659A.150 to 659A.186, 659A.194, 659A.199, 659A.203, 659A.218,
37 659A.228, 659A.230, 659A.233, 659A.236, 659A.250 to 659A.262, 659A.277, 659A.290, 659A.300, 38 659A.306, 659A.309, 659A.315, 659A.318, 659A.320, 659A.355, 659A.421, 653.547 or 653.549 or section
39 4 of this 2017 Act.

40 “(3) In any action under subsection (1) of this section alleging a violation of ORS 25.337, 25.424,
41 652.220, 652.355, 659.852, 659A.030, 659A.040, 659A.043, 659A.046, 659A.069, 659A.082, 659A.103 to 42 659A.145, 659A.199, 659A.203, 659A.228, 659A.230, 659A.250 to 659A.262, 659A.290, 659A.318,
43 659A.355, 659A.421, 653.547 or 653.549 or section 4 of this 2017 Act:

44 “(a) The court may award, in addition to the relief authorized under subsection (1) of this sec-
45 tion, compensatory damages or $200, whichever is greater, and punitive damages;

1 “(b) At the request of any party, the action shall be tried to a jury;

2 “(c) Upon appeal of any judgment finding a violation, the appellate court shall review the judg-
3 ment pursuant to the standard established by ORS 19.415 (1); and

4 “(d) Any attorney fee agreement shall be subject to approval by the court.

5 “(4) Notwithstanding ORS 31.730, in an action under subsection (1) of this section alleging a 6 violation of ORS 652.220, the court may award punitive damages if:

7 “(a) It is proved by clear and convincing evidence that an employer has engaged in fraud, acted 8 with malice or acted with willful and wanton misconduct; or

9 “(b) An employer was previously adjudicated in a proceeding under this section or under ORS
10 659A.850 for a violation of ORS 652.220.

11 “(5) In any action under subsection (1) of this section alleging a violation of ORS 653.060, the 12 court may award, in addition to the relief authorized under subsection (1) of this section, 13 compensatory damages or $200, whichever is greater.

14 “(6) In any action under subsection (1) of this section alleging a violation of ORS 171.120,
15 476.574 or 659A.218, the court may award, in addition to the relief authorized under subsection (1)
16 of this section, compensatory damages or $250, whichever is greater.

17 “(7) In any action under subsection (1) of this section alleging a violation of ORS 10.090 or 18 10.092, the court may award, in addition to the relief authorized under subsection (1) of this section, 19 a civil penalty in the amount of $720.

20 “(8) Any individual against whom any distinction, discrimination or restriction on account of 21 race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, marital status or age, if the individual
22 is 18 years of age or older, has been made by any place of public accommodation, as defined in ORS
23 659A.400, by any employee or person acting on behalf of the place or by any person aiding or
24 abetting the place or person in violation of ORS 659A.406 may bring an action against the operator
25 or manager of the place, the employee or person acting on behalf of the place or the aider or abettor
26 of the place or person. Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, in an action under this sub-
27 section:

28 “(a) The court may award, in addition to the relief authorized under subsection (1) of this sec-
29 tion, compensatory and punitive damages;

30 “(b) The operator or manager of the place of public accommodation, the employee or person
31 acting on behalf of the place, and any aider or abettor shall be jointly and severally liable for all
32 damages awarded in the action;

33 “(c) At the request of any party, the action shall be tried to a jury;

34 “(d) The court shall award reasonable attorney fees to a prevailing plaintiff;

35 “(e) The court may award reasonable attorney fees and expert witness fees incurred by a de-
36 fendant who prevails only if the court determines that the plaintiff had no objectively reasonable
37 basis for asserting a claim or no reasonable basis for appealing an adverse decision of a trial court;
38 and

39 “(f) Upon any appeal of a judgment under this subsection, the appellate court shall review the 40 judgment pursuant to the standard established by ORS 19.415 (1).

41 “(9) When the commissioner or the Attorney General has reasonable cause to believe that a 42 person or group of persons is engaged in a pattern or practice of resistance to the rights protected
43 by ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421 or federal housing law, or that a group of persons has been denied
44 any of the rights protected by ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421 or federal housing law, the commissioner
45 or the Attorney General may file a civil action on behalf of the aggrieved persons in the same

1 manner as a person or group of persons may file a civil action under this section. In a civil action
2 filed under this subsection, the court may assess against the respondent, in addition to the relief
3 authorized under subsections (1) and (3) of this section, a civil penalty:

4 “(a) In an amount not exceeding $50,000 for a first violation; and

5 “(b) In an amount not exceeding $100,000 for any subsequent violation.

6 “(10) In any action under subsection (1) of this section alleging a violation of ORS 659A.145 or 7 659A.421 or alleging discrimination under federal housing law, when the commissioner is pursuing
8 the action on behalf of an aggrieved complainant, the court shall award reasonable attorney fees to
9 the commissioner if the commissioner prevails in the action. The court may award reasonable at-
10 torney fees and expert witness fees incurred by a defendant that prevails in the action if the court
11 determines that the commissioner had no objectively reasonable basis for asserting the claim or for 12 appealing an adverse decision of the trial court.

13 “(11) In an action under subsection (1) or (9) of this section alleging a violation of ORS 659A.145
14 or 659A.421 or discrimination under federal housing law:

15 “(a) ‘Aggrieved person’ includes a person who believes that the person:

16 “(A) Has been injured by an unlawful practice or discriminatory housing practice; or

17 “(B) Will be injured by an unlawful practice or discriminatory housing practice that is about to 18 occur.

19 “(b) An aggrieved person in regard to issues to be determined in an action may intervene as of 20 right in the action. The Attorney General may intervene in the action if the Attorney General
21 certifies that the case is of general public importance. The court may allow an intervenor prevailing
22 party costs and reasonable attorney fees at trial and on appeal.
