6 (1) Communications within a public body or between public bodies of an advisory nature to the 7 extent that they cover other than purely factual materials and are preliminary to any final agency
8 determination of policy or action. This exemption shall not apply unless the public body shows that 9 in the particular instance the public interest in encouraging frank communication between officials 10 and employees of public bodies clearly outweighs the public interest in disclosure.

11 (2) Information of a personal nature such as but not limited to that kept in a personal, medical 12 or similar file, if public disclosure would constitute an unreasonable invasion of privacy, unless the 13 public interest by clear and convincing evidence requires disclosure in the particular instance. The 14 party seeking disclosure shall have the burden of showing that public disclosure would not consti-
15 tute an unreasonable invasion of privacy.

16 (3) Upon compliance with ORS 192.437, public body employee or volunteer residential addresses, 17 residential telephone numbers, personal cellular telephone numbers, personal electronic mail ad-

24 seek to exempt the judge's or district attorney's address or telephone number, or both, under the 25 terms of ORS 192.445;

26 (b) Does not apply to employees or volunteers to the extent that the party seeking disclosure

28 instance pursuant to ORS 192.437;

29 (c) Does not apply to a substitute teacher as defined in ORS 342.815 when requested by a pro-30 fessional education association of which the substitute teacher may be a member; and
