2 cause.

3 [(2)] (3) Notwithstanding ORS 107.135 and except as provided in subsection [(3)] (4) of this sec-
4 tion, a court may not set aside, alter or modify any portion of a judgment of annulment, separation 5 or dissolution of marriage that provides for the custody, parenting time, visitation, support and 6 welfare of a minor child of a deployed parent until 90 days after the completion of the deployed
7 parent's deployment unless a motion to set aside, alter or modify was filed with, heard by and de-8 cided by the court before the commencement of the deployed parent's deployment.

9 [(3)(a)] (4)(a) Notwithstanding ORS 107.138 and 107.139, a court may enter a temporary order
10 modifying the terms of a preexisting judgment of annulment, separation or dissolution of marriage
11 that provides for the custody, parenting time, visitation, support and welfare of a minor child of a 12 deployed parent to reasonably accommodate the circumstances of the deployed parent's deployment 13 in the best interests of the child, upon motion filed by either party and after service of notice on 14 the other party in the manner provided by ORCP 7, and after notice to the Administrator of the 15 Division of Child Support of the Department of Justice or the branch office providing support ser-
16 vices when required by subsection [(4)] (6) of this section. The nondeployed parent bears the burden 17 of proof that the provisions of a temporary order made under this subsection are not in the best 18 interests of the child.

19 (b) A temporary order entered under this subsection must include the following provisions:

20 (A) Parenting time for the deployed parent during periods of approved leave in the best interests 21 of the child;

22 (B) Parenting time for the deployed parent during periods of deployment in the best interests 23 of the child including but not limited to contact by telephone, electronic mail and other electronic 24 means such as video and visual imaging;

25 (C) Modification of the child support provisions of the preexisting judgment to reflect the 26 changed circumstances of the parents and the child during the period of deployment;

27 (D) A requirement that the nondeployed parent provide the court and the deployed parent with 28 written notice 30 days prior to a change of address or telephone number during the period of de-29 ployment;

30 (E) That the temporary order entered under this subsection terminates by operation of law upon 31 completion of deployment and that the provisions of the preexisting judgment that have been modi-32 fied by the temporary order are automatically reinstated unless a request is made and granted under 33 subsection [(5)] (7) of this section;

34 (F) That all other provisions of the preexisting judgment not modified by the temporary order 35 remain in effect; and

36 (G) That deployment is considered completed for purposes of reinstating the provisions of the 37 preexisting judgment that have been modified by the temporary order 10 days after the date on 38 which the deployed parent serves the nondeployed parent and provides to the court and to the Ad-
39 ministrator of the Division of Child Support of the Department of Justice or the branch office pro-
40 viding support services to the county in which the motion is filed copies of written orders or other 41 official notification that the deployed parent is no longer deployed [or in active military service].

42 (5) A temporary order entered under subsection (4) of this section may include a pro- 43 vision allowing or requiring reasonable visitation between the child of a deployed parent and 44 a stepparent, grandparent or other family member related to the child with whom the child
45 has an ongoing relationship as defined in ORS 109.119. In determining the best interests of

1 the child, the court shall consider the factors set forth in ORS 109.119 (4) and whether
2 awarding visitation will facilitate the child's contact with the deployed parent. For purposes
3 of this subsection, a legal parent is presumed to act in the best interests of the child. In 4 making an order under this subsection, the court shall apply a preponderance of the evidence 5 standard.

6 [(4)] (6) A true copy of a motion under subsection [(3)] (4) of this section shall be served by the 7 moving party by mail or personal delivery on the Administrator of the Division of Child Support of 8 the Department of Justice or on the branch office providing support services to the county in which 9 the motion is filed.

10 [(5)] (7) Prior to reinstatement of the provisions of a preexisting judgment, a parent may request 11 ex parte a temporary order alleging that the child will be irreparably harmed or placed in immediate 12 danger if the provisions of the preexisting judgment are automatically reinstated upon completion 13 of deployment.

14 [(6)] (8) When a court has entered a temporary order under subsection [(3)] (4) of this section, 15 the absence of a child from this state during a deployed parent's deployment is considered a tem-
16 porary absence for purposes of the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act and 17 this state shall retain exclusive continuing jurisdiction in accordance with ORS 109.701 to 109.834.

18 [(7)] (9) The court may award attorney fees and costs reasonably incurred in a proceeding under 19 this section if the court finds that a party caused unreasonable delays, failed to provide information
20 as required by this section or acted to unreasonably interfere with or frustrate contact between a 21 deployed parent and a minor child.

22 SECTION 2. ORS 107.146 is amended to read:

23 107.146. (1) Upon motion filed by a deployed parent or a parent whose deployment is imminent, 24 the court shall hold an expedited hearing in:

25 (a) Any proceeding in a suit for marital annulment, dissolution or separation where a deployed 26 parent or a parent whose deployment is imminent is a party;

27 (b) In any proceeding under ORS 107.135, 107.138 and 107.139 where a deployed parent or a 28 parent whose deployment is imminent is a party; and 29 (c) A proceeding under ORS 107.145 [(3)] (4).

30 (2) In any proceeding listed under subsection (1) of this section, whether or not a motion to 31 expedite a hearing has been filed, the court shall make reasonable accommodations to allow a de-
32 ployed parent, or a parent whose deployment is imminent, to provide video, electronic or Internet 33 testimony if the proceeding involves the custody, parenting time, visitation, support and welfare of 34 the parent's child and where the deployed parent or the parent whose deployment is imminent can-35 not personally appear.
