- 38 is licensed, approved, established, maintained or operated by or contracted with the Oregon Health
- 39 Authority for alcoholism, drug addiction or mental or emotional disturbance;
- 40 (H) A program or service providing treatment by appointment that is licensed, approved, estab-
- 41 lished, maintained or operated by or contracted with the authority for alcoholism, drug addiction
- 42 or mental or emotional disturbance; or
- 43 (I) The impaired health professional program established under ORS 676.190.
- 44 (h) "Written account" means records containing only individually identifiable health information.
- 45 (2) Except as provided in subsections (3), (4), (6), (7), (8), (9), (11), (12), (14), (15), (16), (17) and (18)

1 of this section or unless otherwise permitted or required by state or federal law or by order of the 2 court, written accounts of the individuals served by any health care services provider maintained
3 in or by the health care services provider by the officers or employees thereof who are authorized
4 to maintain written accounts within the official scope of their duties are not subject to access and 5 may not be disclosed. This subsection applies to written accounts maintained in or by facilities of 6 the Department of Corrections only to the extent that the written accounts concern the medical,
7 dental or psychiatric treatment as patients of those under the jurisdiction of the Department of 8 Corrections.

9 (3) If the individual or a personal representative of the individual provides an authorization, the 10 content of any written account referred to in subsection (2) of this section must be disclosed ac-
11 cordingly, if the authorization is in writing and is signed and dated by the individual or the personal 12 representative of the individual and sets forth with specificity the following:

13 (a) Name of the health care services provider authorized to make the disclosure, except when 14 the authorization is provided by recipients of or applicants for public assistance or medical assist-
15 ance, as defined in ORS 414.025, to a governmental entity for purposes of determining eligibility for 16 benefits or investigating for fraud;

17 (b) Name or title of the persons or organizations to which the information is to be disclosed or 18 that information may be disclosed to the public;

19 (c) Name of the individual;

20 (d) Extent or nature of the information to be disclosed; and

21 (e) Statement that the authorization is subject to revocation at any time except to the extent
22 that action has been taken in reliance thereon, and a specification of the date, event or condition
23 upon which it expires without express revocation. However, a revocation of an authorization is not 24 valid with respect to inspection or records necessary to validate expenditures by or on behalf of 25 governmental entities.

26 (4) The content of any written account referred to in subsection (2) of this section may be dis-
27 closed without an authorization:

28 (a) To any person to the extent necessary to meet a medical emergency.

29 (b) At the discretion of the responsible officer of the health care services provider, which in the 30 case of any Oregon Health Authority facility or community mental health program is the Director
31 of the Oregon Health Authority, to persons engaged in scientific research, program evaluation, peer 32 review and fiscal audits. However, individual identities may not be disclosed to such persons, except 33 when the disclosure is essential to the research, evaluation, review or audit and is consistent with 34 state and federal law.

35 (c) To governmental agencies when necessary to secure compensation for services rendered in 36 the treatment of the individual.

37 (5) When an individual's identity is disclosed under subsection (4) of this section, a health care
38 services provider shall prepare, and include in the permanent records of the health care services
39 provider, a written statement indicating the reasons for the disclosure, the written accounts dis-
40 closed and the recipients of the disclosure.

41 (6) The content of any written account referred to in subsection (2) of this section and held by 42 a health care services provider currently engaged in the treatment of an individual may be disclosed
43 to officers or employees of that provider, its agents or cooperating health care services providers
44 who are currently acting within the official scope of their duties to evaluate treatment programs,
45 to diagnose or treat or to assist in diagnosing or treating an individual when the written account

1 is to be used in the course of diagnosing or treating the individual. Nothing in this subsection
2 prevents the transfer of written accounts referred to in subsection (2) of this section among health
3 care services providers, the Department of Corrections, the Oregon Health Authority or a local 4 correctional facility when the transfer is necessary or beneficial to the treatment of an individual.

5 (7) When an action, suit, claim, arbitration or proceeding is brought under ORS 34.105 to 34.240
6 or 34.310 to 34.730 and involves a claim of constitutionally inadequate medical care, diagnosis or 7 treatment, or is brought under ORS 30.260 to 30.300 and involves the Department of Corrections or 8 an institution operated by the department, nothing in this section prohibits the disclosure of any 9 written account referred to in subsection (2) of this section to the Department of Justice, Oregon
10 Department of Administrative Services, or their agents, upon request, or the subsequent disclosure
11 to a court, administrative hearings officer, arbitrator or other administrative decision maker.

12 (8)(a) When an action, suit, claim, arbitration or proceeding involves the Oregon Health Au-
13 thority or an institution operated by the authority, nothing in this section prohibits the disclosure
14 of any written account referred to in subsection (2) of this section to the Department of Justice,
15 Oregon Department of Administrative Services, or their agents.

16 (b) Disclosure of information in an action, suit, claim, nonlabor arbitration or proceeding is 17 limited by the relevancy restrictions of ORS 40.010 to 40.585, 183.710 to 183.725, 183.745 and 183.750
18 and ORS chapter 183. Only written accounts of a plaintiff, claimant or petitioner shall be disclosed 19 under this paragraph.

20 (c) Disclosure of information as part of a labor arbitration or proceeding to support a personnel 21 action taken against staff is limited to written accounts directly relating to alleged action or in-
22 action by staff for which the personnel action was imposed.

23 (9)(a) The copy of any written account referred to in subsection (2) of this section, upon written 24 request of the individual or a personal representative of the individual, shall be disclosed to the 25 individual or the personal representative of the individual within a reasonable time not to exceed 26 five working days. The individual or the personal representative of the individual shall have the 27 right to timely access to any written accounts.

28 (b) If the disclosure of psychiatric or psychological information contained in the written account
29 would constitute an immediate and grave detriment to the treatment of the individual, disclosure
30 may be denied, if medically contraindicated by the treating physician or a licensed health care
31 professional in the written account of the individual.

32 (c) The Department of Corrections may withhold psychiatric or psychological information if:

33 (A) The information relates to an individual other than the individual seeking it.

34 (B) Disclosure of the information would constitute a danger to another individual.

35 (C) Disclosure of the information would compromise the privacy of a confidential source.

36 (d) However, a written statement of the denial under paragraph (c) of this subsection and the 37 reasons therefor must be entered in the written account.

38 (10) A health care services provider may require a person requesting disclosure of the contents
39 of a written account under this section to reimburse the provider for the reasonable costs incurred
40 in searching files, abstracting if requested and copying if requested. However, an individual or a 41 personal representative of the individual may not be denied access to written accounts concerning 42 the individual because of inability to pay.

43 (11) A written account referred to in subsection (2) of this section may not be used to initiate 44 or substantiate any criminal, civil, administrative, legislative or other proceedings conducted by 45 federal, state or local authorities against the individual or to conduct any investigations of the in-

1 individual. If the individual, as a party to an action, suit or other judicial proceeding, voluntarily
2 produces evidence regarding an issue to which a written account referred to in subsection (2) of this 3 section would be relevant, the contents of that written account may be disclosed for use in the 4 proceeding.

5 (12) Information obtained in the course of diagnosis, evaluation or treatment of an individual
6 that, in the professional judgment of the health care services provider, indicates a clear and imme-
7 diate danger to others or to society may be reported to the appropriate authority. A decision not 8 to disclose information under this subsection does not subject the provider to any civil liability.
9 Nothing in this subsection may be construed to alter the provisions of ORS 146.750, 146.760,
10 419B.010, 419B.015, 419B.020, 419B.025, 419B.030, 419B.035, 419B.040 and 419B.045.

11 (13) The prohibitions of this section apply to written accounts concerning any individual who 12 has been treated by any health care services provider irrespective of whether or when the individual 13 ceases to receive treatment.

14 (14) Persons other than the individual or the personal representative of the individual who are 15 granted access under this section to the contents of a written account referred to in subsection (2)
16 of this section may not disclose the contents of the written account to any other person except in 17 accordance with the provisions of this section.

18 (15) Nothing in this section prevents the Department of Human Services or the Oregon Health
19 Authority from disclosing the contents of written accounts in its possession to individuals or agen-
20 cies with whom children in its custody are placed.

21 (16) The system described in ORS 192.517 (1) shall have access to records, as defined in ORS
22 192.515, as provided in ORS 192.517.

23 (17)(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, a health care services provider 24 must obtain an authorization from an individual or a personal representative of the individual to 25 disclose psychotherapy notes.

26 (b) A health care services provider may use or disclose psychotherapy notes without obtaining 27 an authorization from the individual or a personal representative of the individual to carry out the 28 following treatment, payment and health care operations:

29 (A) Use by the originator of the psychotherapy notes for treatment;

30 (B) Disclosure by the health care services provider for its own training program in which stu-
31 dents, trainees or practitioners in mental health learn under supervision to practice or improve their 32 skills in group, joint, family or individual counseling; or

33 (C) Disclosure by the health care services provider to defend itself in a legal action or other 34 proceeding brought by the individual or a personal representative of the individual.

35 (c) An authorization for the disclosure of psychotherapy notes may not be combined with an 36 authorization for a disclosure of any other individually identifiable health information, but may be 37 combined with another authorization for a disclosure of psychotherapy notes.

38 (18) A health care services provider may disclose information contained in a written account if 39 the conditions of ORS 192.567 (1) to (5) or section 2 of this 2017 Act are met.

40 SECTION 4. ORS 192.558 is amended to read:

41 192.558. A health care provider or state health plan:

42 (1) May use or disclose protected health information of an individual in a manner that is con-
43 sistent with an authorization provided by the individual or a personal representative of the individ-44 ual.

45 (2) May use or disclose protected health information of an individual without obtaining an au-

1 authorization from the individual or a personal representative of the individual:

2 (a) For the provider's or plan's own treatment, payment or health care operations; or

3 (b) As otherwise permitted or required by state or federal law or by order of the court.

4 (3) May disclose protected health information of an individual without obtaining an authori-
5 zation from the individual or a personal representative of the individual:

6 (a) To another covered entity for health care operations activities of the entity that receives the 7 information if:

8 (A) Each entity has or had a relationship with the individual who is the subject of the protected
9 health information; and

10 (B) The protected health information pertains to the relationship and the disclosure is for the 11 purpose of:

12 (i) Health care operations as listed in ORS 192.556 (4)(a) or (b); or

13 (ii) Health care fraud and abuse detection or compliance;

14 (b) To another covered entity or any other health care provider for treatment activities of a 15 health care provider;

16 (c) To another covered entity or any other health care provider for the payment activities of the 17 entity that receives that information; or

18 (d) In accordance with ORS 192.567 or section 2 of this 2017 Act.
