2 payment of support under a new or modified order will be by income withholding unless an excep-

22 section or by the disclosure of other information concerning a child or party to a paternity or sup-
23 port proceeding or if an existing order so requires, a court or administrator or administrative law 24 judge, when the proceeding is administrative, shall order that the information not be contained in 25 any document provided to another party or otherwise disclosed to a party other than the state.

26 “(B) The Department of Justice shall adopt rules providing for similar confidentiality for infor-27 mation described in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph that is maintained by an entity providing 28 support enforcement services under ORS 25.080.

29 “(e) The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court may, in consultation with the Department of Jus-
30 tice, adopt rules under ORS 1.002 to designate information specified in this subsection as confiden-

33 “(9)(a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, in any subsequent child 34 support enforcement action, the court or administrator, upon a showing of diligent effort made to

39 “(10) Subject to ORS 25.030, this section, to the extent it imposes any duty or function upon the 40 Department of Justice, shall be deemed to supersede any provisions of ORS chapters 107, 108, 109, 41 110, 416, 419A, 419B and 419C that would otherwise impose the same duties or functions upon the 42 county clerk or the Department of Human Services.

43 “(11) Except as provided for in subsections (12), (13) and (14) of this section, credit may not be 12 “[(d) (c) As provided by rule adopted under ORS 180.345.

13 “(13) An obligor may apply to the Department of Justice for credit for payments made other 14 than to the Department of Justice. If the obligee or other state does not provide the agreement[, 15 sworn statement] or verification required by subsection (12) of this section, credit may be given 16 pursuant to order of an administrative law judge assigned from the Office of Administrative 17 Hearings after notice and opportunity to object and be heard are given to both obligor and obligee.
18 Notice shall be served upon the obligee as provided by ORS 25.085. Notice to the obligor may be 19 by regular mail at the address provided in the application for credit. A hearing conducted under this 20 subsection is a contested case hearing and ORS 183.413 to 183.470 apply. Any party may seek a 21 hearing de novo in the circuit court.
22 “(14) Nothing in this section precludes the Department of Justice from giving credit for pay-
23 ments not made to the department when there has been a judicially determined credit or satisfaction
24 or when there has been a satisfaction of support executed by the person to whom support is owed.
25 “(15) The Department of Justice shall adopt rules that:
26 “(a) Direct how support payments that are made through or credited by the department are to
