

Requested by SENATE COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO A-ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL 2732

1 Delete lines 6 through 18 of the printed A-engrossed bill and insert:

2 “(2) A person who enters a motor vehicle, by force or otherwise, to re-
3 move a child or domestic animal left unattended in the motor vehicle is not
4 subject to criminal or civil liability if the person:

5 “(a) Before entering the motor vehicle, determines that the motor vehicle
6 is locked or there is no reasonable method for the child or animal to exit the 7 motor vehicle without assistance;

8 “(b) Has a good faith and reasonable belief, based upon the circumstances,
9 that entry into the motor vehicle is necessary because the child or animal
10 is in imminent danger of suffering harm;

11 “(c) Before or as soon as is reasonably practicable after entering the 12 motor vehicle, notifies law enforcement or emergency services;

13 “(d) Uses no more force than is necessary to enter the motor vehicle and 14 remove the child or animal; and

15 “(e) Remains with the child or animal in a safe location, in reasonable
16 proximity to the motor vehicle, until law enforcement, emergency services
17 or the owner or operator of the motor vehicle arrives.”.

18
