PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL 2262

1 On page 1 of the printed bill, delete lines 5 through 27 and delete pages 2 2 through 5 and insert:

3 “SECTION 1. ORS 240.123 is amended to read:

4 “240.123. (1) The Employment Relations Board shall employ such person-5 nel as it considers necessary for the efficient administration of its vested 6 duties, and fix the compensation of its employees in accordance with the 7 compensation plan for [classified] state employees.

8 “[(2) The board shall designate one of its employees as its executive secre- 9 tary and delegate to the executive secretary such administrative duties and 10 responsibilities as it finds advisable. The executive secretary shall be in the 11 classified service.]

12 “[(3)] (2) The board shall designate a member of the Oregon State Bar as 13 [its general] counsel to assist it in the performance of its functions and du-14 ties. Notwithstanding ORS chapter 180 and independently of the Attorney 15 General, the [general] designated counsel may represent the board in any 16 litigation or other matter pending in a court of law to which the board is a 17 party or in which it is otherwise interested. The [general] designated coun-18 sel [shall] may not appear before the board in any other capacity [other than 19 general counsel to the board. The board may also delegate to its general 20 counsel such other administrative duties and responsibilities as it finds ad- 21 visable].

1       “SECTION 2. ORS 240.167 is amended to read:

2       “240.167. (1) The administrative expenses and costs of operation of the 3       Employment Relations Board in behalf of the state service shall be paid by 4       the various divisions of the service in the state government. The board shall 5       determine the amount of the expenses and costs to be paid by each division 6       of the service on the basis of the proportion [that the number] of employees 7       of that division [in the classified service bears] who have rights under the 8       State Personnel Relations Law or ORS 243.650 to 243.782 to the total 9       number of employees of all divisions of the service [in the classified service, 10      or on any other basis that the board determines to be equitable] who have 11      such rights. The Oregon Department of Administrative Services shall 12      transfer the assessed money to the Employment Relations Board Ad- 13      ministrative Account established under ORS 240.131.

14      “(2) [The Employment Relations Board, at such times as its executive sec- 15      retary considers proper, shall estimate in advance the expenses and costs that 16      will be incurred during a period of not to exceed six months and shall render 17      to each division of the service in the state government affected thereby an in- 18      voice for its pro rata share of such expenses and costs. Each division shall pay 19      such invoice promptly as an administrative expense of that division from funds 20      appropriated to or otherwise available for expenditure by that division, in the 21      same manner as other claims against the state are paid. If the estimated ex- 22      penses in the case of any division are more or less than the actual expenses, 23      the difference shall be reflected in the next following estimate of expenses and 24      *invoice for that division of the service.] The board shall set standards for 25      the assessment of administrative expenses and costs under subsection 26      (1) of this section. The standards shall include the establishment of 27      written policies and procedures the board must follow when deter- 28      mining the assessment.

29      “SECTION 3. ORS 243.682 is amended to read:

30      “243.682. (1) If a question of representation exists, the Employment Re-

1 lations Board shall:

2 “(a) Upon application of a public employer, public employee or a labor 3 organization, designate the appropriate bargaining unit, and in making its 4 determination shall consider such factors as community of interest, wages, 5 hours and other working conditions of the employees involved, the history 6 of collective bargaining, and the desires of the employees. The board may 7 determine a unit to be the appropriate unit in a particular case even though 8 some other unit might also be appropriate.

9 “(b) Investigate and conduct a hearing on a petition that has been filed 10 by:

11 “(A) A labor organization alleging that 30 percent of the employees in an 12 appropriate bargaining unit desire to be represented for collective bargaining 13 by an exclusive representative;

14 “(B) A labor organization alleging that 30 percent of the employees in an 15 appropriate bargaining unit assert that the designated exclusive represen-16 tative is no longer the representative of the majority of the employees in the 17 unit;

18 “(C) A public employer alleging that one or more labor organizations has 19 presented a claim to the public employer requesting recognition as the ex-20 clusive representative in an appropriate bargaining unit; or 21 “(D) An employee or group of employees alleging that 30 percent of the 22 employees assert that the designated exclusive representative is no longer 23 the representative of the majority of employees in the unit.

24 “(2)(a) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, when an employee, 25 group of employees or labor organization acting on behalf of the employees 26 files a petition alleging that a majority of employees in a unit appropriate 27 for the purpose of collective bargaining wish to be represented by a labor 28 organization for that purpose, or when a [group of unrepresented employees] 29 labor organization files a petition [stating that the] alleging that the 30 majority in a group of unrepresented employees seek to be [included in]

1 added to an existing bargaining unit, the board shall investigate the peti-
2 tion. If the board finds that a majority of the employees in a unit appropriate 3 for bargaining or a majority of employees in a group of unrepresented 4 employees [seeking to be included in] that is appropriate to add to an ex-5 isting bargaining unit have signed authorizations designating the labor or-6 ganization specified in the petition as the employees' bargaining 7 representative and that no other labor organization is currently certified or 8 recognized as the exclusive representative of any of the employees in the unit 9 or in the group of unrepresented employees seeking to be [included in] added 10 to an existing bargaining unit, the board may not conduct an election but 11 shall certify the labor organization as the exclusive representative unless a 12 petition for a representation election is filed as provided in subsection (3) 13 of this section.

14 “(b) The board by rule shall develop guidelines and procedures for the 15 designation by employees of a bargaining representative in the manner de-16 scribed in paragraph (a) of this subsection. The guidelines and procedures 17 must include:

18 “(A) Model collective bargaining authorization language that may be used 19 for purposes of making the designations described in paragraph (a) of this 20 subsection;

21 “(B) Procedures to be used by the board to establish the authenticity of 22 signed authorizations designating bargaining representatives;

23 “(C) Procedures to be used by the board to notify affected employees of 24 the filing of a petition requesting certification under subsection (3) of this 25 section;

26 “(D) Procedures for filing a petition to request a representation election, 27 including a timeline of not more than 14 days after notice has been delivered 28 to the affected employees of a petition filed under paragraph (a) of this 29 subsection; and

30 “(E) Procedures for expedited resolution of any dispute about the scope

1 of the appropriate bargaining unit. The resolution of the dispute may occur 2 after an election is conducted.

3 “(c) Solicitation and rescission of a signed authorization designating 4 bargaining representatives are subject to the provisions of ORS 243.672.

5 “(3)(a) Notwithstanding subsection (2) of this section, when a petition 6 requesting certification has been filed under subsection (2) of this section, 7 an employee or a group of employees in the unit designated by the petition, 8 or one or more of the unrepresented employees seeking to be [included in] 9 added to an existing bargaining unit, may file a petition with the board to 10 request that a representation election be conducted.

11 “(b) The petition requesting a representation election must be supported 12 by at least 30 percent of the employees in the bargaining unit designated by 13 the petition, or 30 percent of the unrepresented employees seeking to be 14 [included in] added to an existing bargaining unit.

15 “(c) The representation election shall be conducted on-site or by mail not 16 later than 45 days after the date on which the petition was filed.

17 “(4) Except as provided in ORS 243.692, if the board finds in a hearing 18 conducted pursuant to subsection (1)(b) of this section that a question of 19 representation exists, the board shall conduct an election by secret ballot, 20 at a time and place convenient for the employees of the jurisdiction and also 21 within a reasonable period of time after the filing has taken place, and cer-22 tify the results of the election.

23 “SECTION 4. ORS 243.684 is amended to read:

24 “243.684. A petition for representation filed under ORS 243.682 (2) [alleg- 25 ing that a majority of employees in the unit appropriate for the purpose of 26 collective bargaining wish to be represented by a labor organization for that 27 purpose] must include a statement of a desire by the employees to be re-28 presented [for the purpose of collective bargaining] and must be signed and 29 dated by [30 percent of] the employees [in the unit] during the 180 days [prior 30 to the filing of] before the petition is filed with the Employment Relations

1 Board.

2 “SECTION 5. ORS 243.726 is amended to read:

3 “243.726. (1) Participation in a strike shall be unlawful for any public 4 employee who is not included in an appropriate bargaining unit for which 5 an exclusive representative has been certified by the Employment Relations 6 Board or recognized by the employer; or is included in an appropriate bar-7 gaining unit that provides for resolution of a labor dispute by petition to 8 final and binding arbitration; or when the strike is not made lawful under 9 ORS 240.060, 240.065, 240.080, 240.123, 243.650 to 243.782, 292.055 and 341.290.

10 “(2) It shall be lawful for a public employee who is not prohibited from 11 striking under subsection (1) of this section and who is in the appropriate 12 bargaining unit involved in a labor dispute to participate in a strike over 13 mandatory subjects of bargaining provided:

14 “(a) The requirements of ORS 243.712 and 243.722 relating to the resol-15 ution of labor disputes have been complied with in good faith;

16 “(b) Thirty days have elapsed since the board has made public the fact 17 finder’s findings of fact and recommendations or the mediator has made 18 public the parties’ final offers;

19 “(c) The exclusive representative has given 10 days’ notice by certified 20 mail of its intent to strike and stating the reasons for its intent to strike to 21 the board and the public employer;

22 “(d) The collective bargaining agreement has expired, or the labor dispute 23 arises pursuant to a reopener provision in a collective bargaining agreement 24 or renegotiation under ORS 243.702 (1) or renegotiation under ORS 243.698; 25 and 26 “(e) The union’s strike does not include unconventional strike activity 27 not protected under the National Labor Relations Act on June 6, 1995, and 28 does not constitute an unfair labor practice under ORS 243.672 (2)(f).

29 “(3)(a) Where the strike occurring or is about to occur creates a clear and 30 present danger or threat to the health, safety or welfare of the public, the 1 public employer concerned may petition the circuit court of the county in 2 which the strike has taken place or is to take place for equitable relief in-3 cluding but not limited to appropriate injunctive relief.

4 “(b) If the strike is a strike of state employees the petition shall be filed 5 in the Circuit Court of Marion County.

6 “(c) If, after hearing, the court finds that the strike creates a clear and 7 present danger or threat to the health, safety or welfare of the public, it 8 shall grant appropriate relief. Such relief shall include an order that the la-9 bor dispute be submitted to final and binding arbitration within 10 days of 10 the court’s order pursuant to procedures in ORS 243.746.

11 “(4)(a) [No] A labor organization [shall] may not declare or authorize a 12 strike of public employees that is or would be in violation of this section.
13 When it is alleged in good faith by the public employer that a labor organ-14 ization has declared or authorized a strike of public employees that is or 15 would be in violation of this section, the employer may petition the board 16 for a declaration that the strike is or would be unlawful. The board, after 17 conducting an investigation and hearing, may make such declaration if it 18 finds that such declaration or authorization of a strike is or would be un-19 lawful.

20 “(b) When a labor organization or individual disobeys an order of the 21 appropriate circuit court issued pursuant to enforcing an order of the board 22 involving this section and ORS 243.736 or 243.738, they shall be punished 23 according to the provisions of ORS 33.015 to 33.155, except that the amount 24 of the fine shall be at the discretion of the court.

25 “(5) An unfair labor practice by a public employer shall not be a defense 26 to a prohibited strike. The board upon the filing of an unfair labor charge 27 alleging that a public employer has committed an unfair labor practice dur-28 ing or arising out of the collective bargaining procedures set forth in ORS 29 243.712 and 243.722, shall take immediate action on such charge and if re-30 quired, petition the court of competent jurisdiction for appropriate relief or 1 a restraining order.

2 “(6) As used in this section, ‘danger or threat to the health, safety or 3 welfare of the public’ does not include an economic or financial inconven-4 ience to the public or to the public employer that is normally incident to a 5 strike by public employees.

6 “SECTION 6. ORS 243.742 is amended to read:

7 “243.742. (1) It is the public policy of the State of Oregon that where the 8 right of employees to strike is by law prohibited, it is requisite to the high 9 morale of such employees and the efficient operation of such departments to 10 afford an alternate, expeditious, effective and binding procedure for the re-11 solution of labor disputes and to that end the provisions of ORS 240.060, 12 240.065, 240.080, 240.123, 243.650 to 243.782, 292.055 and 341.290, providing for 13 compulsory arbitration, shall be liberally construed.

14 “(2) When the procedures set forth in ORS 243.712 and 243.722, relating 15 to mediation of a labor dispute, have not culminated in a signed agreement 16 between the parties who are prohibited from striking, the public employer 17 and exclusive representative of its employees shall include with the final 18 offer filed with the mediator a petition to the Employment Relations Board 19 in writing [which] that initiates binding arbitration for bargaining units 20 with employees referred to in ORS 243.736 [(1)] or 243.738. Arbitration shall 21 be scheduled by mutual agreement not earlier than 30 days following the 22 submission of the final offer packages to the mediator. Arbitration shall be 23 scheduled in accordance with the procedures prescribed in ORS 243.746.

24 “SECTION 7. ORS 243.752 is amended to read:

25 “243.752. (1) A majority decision of the arbitration panel, under ORS 26 243.706, 243.726, 243.736, 243.738, 243.742 and 243.746, if supported by compe-27 tent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, based upon the 28 factors set forth in ORS 243.746 (4), shall be final and binding upon the 29 parties. Refusal or failure to comply with any provision of a final and bind-30 ing arbitration award is an unfair labor practice. Any order issued by the 1 Employment Relations Board pursuant to this section may be enforced at the 2 instance of either party or the board in the circuit court for the county in 3 which the dispute arose.

4 “(2) The arbitration panel may award increases retroactively to the first 5 day after the expiration of the immediately preceding collective bargaining 6 agreement. At any time the parties, by stipulation, may amend or modify an 7 award of arbitration.

8 “SECTION 8. ORS 662.455 is amended to read:

9 “662.455. The [head of the] State Conciliation Service shall be headed by 10 the conciliator, who shall be appointed by the [Executive Secretary] chair- 11 person of the Employment Relations Board[, with the approval of the board.
12 The conciliator and all other employees of the State Conciliation Service shall 13 be subject to the State Personnel Relations Law].”.
