17 “SECTION 19. ORS 112.365 is amended to read:

23 “SECTION 20. ORS 112.385 is amended to read:

24 “112.385. (1) In the situations and under the circumstances provided in 25 and governed by this section, specific devises will not fail or be extinguished 26 by the encumbrance, destruction, damage, sale, condemnation or change in 27 form of the property specifically devised. This section is inapplicable if the 28 intent that the devise fail under the particular circumstances appears in the 29 will or if the testator during the lifetime of the testator gives property to 30 the specific devisee with the intent of satisfying the specific devise.

1 “(2) Whenever the subject of a specific devise is property only part of 2 which is encumbered, destroyed, damaged, sold or condemned, the specific 3 devise of any remaining interest in the property owned by the testator at the 4 time of death is not affected by this section[;], but this section applies to the 5 part which would have been adeemed under the common law by the de-6 struction, damage, sale or condemnation.

7 “(3) If insured property that is the subject of a specific devise is destroyed 8 or damaged, the specific devisee has the right to receive, reduced by any 9 amount expended or incurred by the testator in restoration or repair of the 13 “(b) A general pecuniary legacy equivalent to any insurance proceeds paid 14 to the testator within six months before the death of the testator.

15 “(4) If property that is the subject of a specific devise is sold by the 16 testator, the specific devisee has the right to receive:

17 “(a) Any balance of the purchase price unpaid at the time of the death 18 of the testator, including any security interest in the property and interest 19 accruing before the death, if part of the estate, with the incidents of the 20 specific devise; and

21 “(b) A general pecuniary legacy equivalent to the amount of the purchase 22 price paid to the testator within six months before the death of the testator.
23 Acceptance of a promissory note of the purchaser or a third party is not 24 considered payment, but payment on the note is payment on the purchase
25 price. Sale by an agent of the testator or by a trustee under a revocable 26 living trust created by the testator, the principal of which is to be paid to 27 the personal representative or estate of the testator on the death of the 28 testator, is a sale by the testator for purposes of this section.

29 “(5) If property that is the subject of a specific devise is taken by con-
30 demnation before the death of the testator, the specific devisee has the right

1 to receive:

2 “(a) Any amount of the condemnation award unpaid at the time of the 3 death, with the incidents of the specific devise; and

4 “(b) A general pecuniary legacy equivalent to the amount of an award 5 paid to the testator within six months before the death of the testator. In the 6 event of an appeal in a condemnation proceeding, the award, for purposes 7 of this section, is limited to the amount established on the appeal.

8 “(6) If property that is the subject of a specific devise is sold by a 9 conservator of the testator, or insurance proceeds or a condemnation award 10 are paid to a conservator of the testator, the specific devisee has the right 11 to receive a general pecuniary legacy equivalent to the proceeds of the sale, 12 the insurance proceeds or the condemnation award, reduced by any amount 13 expended or incurred in restoration or repair of the property. This subsection 14 does not apply if the testator, after the sale, receipt of insurance proceeds 15 or award, is adjudicated competent and survives such adjudication by six 16 months.

17 “(7) If securities are specifically devised, and after the execution of the 18 will other securities in the same or another entity are distributed to the 19 testator by reason of ownership of the specifically devised securities and as 20 a result of a partial liquidation, stock dividend, stock split, merger, consol-21 idation, reorganization, recapitalization, redemption, exchange or any other 22 similar transaction, and if the other securities are part of the estate of the 23 testator at death, the specific devise is considered to include the additional 24 or substituted securities. Distributions prior to death with respect to a 25 specifically devised security not provided for in this subsection are not part 26 of the specific devise. As used in this subsection, ‘securities’ means the same 27 as defined in ORS 59.015.

28 “(8) The amount a specific devisee receives as provided in this section is 29 reduced by any expenses of the sale or of collection of proceeds of insurance, 30 sale or condemnation award and by any amount by which the income tax of
