

"That gives away our populous vote to other States in a Presidential Election. There should be no debate. There should be no law that takes my individual vote away from whom I want as President of the United States.

Richard Joyce"