

I encourage this step in reducing time consumption, and money to obtain a construction contractor license with residential general contractor endorsement.

As a person who has building experience and would like to build homes without going through the educational process currently in place. To obtain license and endorsement without meeting contractor training requirements or paying fees to Construction Contractors Board.

Randy Norton

524 Elzora Loop

Milton Freewater OR 97862